Frequently Asked Questions

Spring Retreat

FAQ #1: Where will we be staying?

Answer: We will be staying at CYO Camp Rancho Framasa in Brown County, IN. There will be gender specific cabins (a boys cabin and a girls cabin) and age appropriate cabins (jr high and sr. high).

FAQ #2: When will we leave and return?

Answer: We will be meeting at St. Michael in the Youth Center at 4:30 pm and return Sunday at 4:30 pm.

FAQ #3: What do I need to bring?

Answer:

- Clothes (Be sure to pack plenty of WARM clothes and Clothes for Service)
- Toiletries (Soap, shampoo, deodorant, etc.)
- Good walking shoes
- Flashlight
- Towel and Washcloth
- Sleeping bag or sheets
- Pillow
- Rain Gear (just in case)
- An extra sweater or sweatshirt (just incase)
- Socks (bring plenty to keep your toes warm!!!)
- Pajamas
- An open mind
- Bible and/or Journal
- 12 pack of your favorite non-caffeinated, non-carbonated beverage
- A bag of your favorite snack (chips, candy, etc.)
- Money for dinner on the way to retreat (We will stop at Wendy's on the way)

Other optional things:

- Camera, Guitar or other Musical Instrument, Drawing Tablet

FAQ #4: Can I bring my cell phone or tablet?

Answer: No. Youth are asked to leave their cell phones, i-pods, i-pads, tablets, mp3 players, etc at home. This weekend is all about spending time together in nature and in community with one another and cell phones will take away from this experience. We will send a letter home with an emergency number to contact in case a parent should need to reach a child.

Spring Retreat

FAQ #5: What do you do on retreat?

Answer: Retreats are a chance to take a time out from the busyness of everyday life to focus on our relationship with those around us and with God through witness talks, activities, prayer and games. This retreat will focus on the idea of God's grace. We will have small groups led by young adults and adults throughout the weekend. Want to know more? Ask your friends who have been on retreat or Fraz and they can help.

FAQ #6: Is the food good?

Answer: Yes! The meals at Rancho are always amazing and we will have a salad bar and peanut butter and jelly sandwiches available at all lunch and dinner meals just in case you don't like what is being served.
