Frequently Asked Questions
Wake Up!
St. Michael Parish

FAQ #1: Can I pick and choose events to attend?

Answer: No. The main purpose of this program is to provide fellowship for the group. We realize that some folks may have to miss a week for family vacation, but the idea is to really have the group gathered as much as possible to be a part of the group.

FAQ #2: Is there a different cost if I miss one or more weeks of the program?

Answer: There is a set fee for the program of $150 which covers all travel and food expenses for the program along with any ticket or activity fees and the t-shirt that the participants will receive. The actual cost for the program is over $225/person and is offset by the parish.

FAQ #3: If I sign up that I am willing to chaperone an event, is it set in stone that I am a chaperone?

Answer: Not necessarily, we will be calling all persons who volunteered to help chaperone for the various events at the beginning of summer to set up help and double check if the dates you thought you might be able to help are still available and open for you. We will also call a week before each event to remind those who signed up that they had done so.

FAQ #4: What if my child doesn't want me to chaperone?

Answer: We still need you! We cannot do youth ministry here at St. Michael without your support and whether they admit it or not, youth need you in their lives developmentally to serve as great roles models.

FAQ #5: Can my child bring a friend with them to the program?

Answer: Absolutely. As long as the friend is going into the 9th grade through graduating senior, they are allowed to sign up for the program.

FAQ #6: Is there food provided at all events?

Answer: No. Our Holiday World trip will not have any meals provided and youth will need to bring money with them to eat lunch and dinner. For our baseball game, retreat day, canoeing day, and picnic day we will have lunch provided.

FAQ #7: Are you serious about the dress code?

Answer: Yes. We realize that holding youth to higher standards may go against popular culture, but if we do not hold them to that and show them what is acceptable and not acceptable; they will be taking their cues from places influencing them in a negative way.

FAQ#8: What do I need to have turned in to participate?

Answer: All youth must have a St. Michael Permission Slip, a PlowShares permission slip and a Canoeing waiver turned in to participate in the events.
